Opinion
of Sts Atty
on Kingstn Twp. in,

for the following purposes for the current year; For general purposes six hundred fifty dollars ($650.00).

Clearly this proposition should have been submitted to the electors of said township at a legal meeting thereof and any tax levied without such submission would be illegal.

As to the authority of this Board to abate illegal tax is see Sec. 1242 Revised Codes.

As to above mentioned tax having been legalized by reason of curative act passed by the legislature at its last session, would say;

From a careful examination of the authorities on the subject of curative acts of legislature I find that the legislature may by curative acts heal the irregularities in action, but they cannot cure want of authority to act at all.

As the above named Township Board had no authority to vote a tax, their attempt to do so cannot be legalized by the legislature.

Respectfully submitted,

J. S. Bishop,
State's Atty
